

LOST

- I scampered off around 10:30pm on Thursday, July 5 in the Arbor Springs neighborhood. I thought it'd be fun to explore but I can't find my way home now.

- I'm about 11 lbs, have white paws, breast, underbelly, and a black and white snout – everything else is black. People say I look like a mini border collie.

- I always wear my pink and black collar (as seen above) with my blue microchip ID tag and an updated rabies tag. So I'm healthy. And very very friendly.

I answer to “Callie.”
