EVENTS NOTIFICATION

ANIMAL ISSUES CLASSES

Animal Control is offering 2 educational classes in April: "Animal Cruelty Awareness Class" and "Pittville. The Animal Cruelty Awareness Class is described as "an open discussion about the state of animal cruelty in DeKalb County and the steps being taken to prosecute and reduce the number of these horrific crimes." Pittville's goal is "educating the public about bully breeds: Pit bulls." Both classes are being presented by Animal Cruelty Investigator K.D. Hearst, from 6:00-9:00P at 1950 W. Exchange Place Tucker, Ga. 30084 in room 118-C.

Animal Cruelty Awareness Monday, April 19, 2010
Pittville Monday, April 26, 2010

TUCKER DAY

This annual street fair is held on the Saturday before Mother's Day. This year's event is scheduled from 9:00A-4:00P on May 8th. It will be held on Main Street in Tucker. Some earlier information had stated that the location would be different this year, due to construction on Main Street. However, this construction has been delayed, so the event will remain at the original location-Main Street. Arts and Crafts, children's activities, food and beverages, and a parade beginning at 10:00A are featured at this family-friendly event that attracts between 5,000-6,000 participants.

NATIONAL NIGHT OUT

Start making your plans now for this annual neighborhood event, scheduled for Tuesday, August 3rd.
